Queen Dolores Rules '59 Festivities

By Carol Stier
As Kastle Kapers reached a dramatic climax last night, there came the moment Wartburg had been awaiting — introduction of the 1959 Homecoming queen, Her Majesty Dolores McMahan.

Attending her were seniors Darlene Arns, Shirley Campbell, Marian Chatfield and Meredith Stuhmer.

To Be Crowned
The coronation of the new queen will highlight the half-time period of the Wartburg-Buena Vista football game this afternoon. The 1958 Homecoming Queen, Karla Edgar Bracklein, will be on hand to crown her successor.

As part of her Homecoming activities, Queen Dolores will reign over all the Homecoming events and will be honored at the Queen's Reception to be held Sunday afternoon in Centennial Lounge from 3 to 5 p. m.

There she and her court will be on hand to greet Wartburg students, faculty and alumni.

An attendant last year, she was elected by the student body from a group of 10 senior girls to the supreme royal position. Hazel-eyed Dolores is five feet four inches tall, and her favorite color is blue.

Queen Is Iowan
Dolores hails from Silver City. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. S. McMahan, she has two brothers, one stationed in Germany with the United States Armed Forces and the other a sophomore in high school.

Dolores is taking a major in voice and organ and a minor in English, which will earn her a Bachelor of Music Education degree. Her 18 semester hours of class at present are spent in physical science, form and analysis (a music course), English methods, vocal pedagogy and Shakespeare, which is her favorite. Voice and organ lessons also occupy a share of the queen's time.

Has Hobbies
Dolores' hobbies include swimming instruction (her summer employment), dancing, music and sports of all kinds. She likes to eat steak and could spend unlimited time with her fiancé, Dave Linkey, 1958 Wartburg graduate, whom she plans to marry on Dec. 20 of this year.

When Dolores was first told of her good fortune, her first verbal reaction was "You're kidding!" accompanied by a "real funny feeling inside as if I couldn't get my breath."

's Wonderful!

"This past year has been wonderful. First I was a Homecoming attendant last year; then came the European choir tour this summer, now this, and at Christmas my wedding. It seems as though all these things couldn't happen to the same person in one year," she went on to say.

Darlene Arns, an elementary education major, lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Arns, and one sister Karen, Wartburg freshman, on a farm about two miles from campus. She plans to teach Christian Day school and is "thrilled" at being selected to attend this year's queen.

Works In Waverly
She works as a receptionist for Dr. M. O. Brye, a chiropractor in downtown Waverly. Teaching her class of second graders in the Sunday School at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, incidentally, was her inspiration for entering the teaching profession.

A second elementary education major who is serving as attendant to the queen is Shirley Campbell, who is planning a Christmas wedding to Jack Reents, 1958 Wartburg graduate presently attending Wartburg Seminary at Dubuque. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Campbell, Maquoketa, she has one sister, Janet, who attended Wartburg the past two years. Shirley was an attendant to the queen last year also.

Feels Honored
Brown-haired, blue-eyed Shirley says, "I feel very honored and am looking forward to a big weekend."

Brown hair and eyes are distinguishing features of five feet five and one-half inch Marian Chatfield, Minneapolis. Her future plans include an August marriage to Arno Frerichs, '58, Wartburg Seminary student.

"I think this is quite an honor and I'm quite happy and pleased about it," said Marian.

Marian, also an elementary education major, has a sister Ruth, who is a sophomore at Wartburg, and a brother Paul, who is a senior in high school. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Melbe Chatfield.

Marti's Musical
Representing the music majors is Meredith (Marti) Stuhmer. She, too, holds a position among the world's dark-haired, hazel-eyed people. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stuhmer, Alma, Neb., receive two sets of letters from Wartburg — one from her and one from her brother Neil, who is a sophomore here.

"I think it is very thrilling to be a member of the queen's court," said Marti. "I am confident that the Knights will win the game, and I'm sure this will be a very successful weekend."

These are the girls the Wartburg student body chose to receive its highest honor of the season, membership on the Homecoming court. And these are the girls who will help make Homecoming 1959 an occasion to remember.

Beckman Takes Breather; Homecoming Duties Over

"Letters, I wrote letters. I wrote stacks and stacks of letters," as the song similarly goes, well describes the preliminary duties of Ron Beckman, head of the 1959 Homecoming activities.

Following his appointment to the chairmanship last spring, Ron worked with the assistance of 1958 Homecoming Chairman Paul Fuchs, going over records and getting an idea of his responsibilities. This summer found Ron busily corresponding with suggested speakers for Homecoming, making building arrangements and setting up schedules.

Duties Full
His duties this fall have been to co-ordinate committees and keep a check to see that all activities are carried out on schedule.

"The support I have received," stated Ron, "is the thing which surprised me most. Student cooperation has been terrific! Faculty members included, everybody has gone to work on this."

Ron's From Neb.
Ron, a senior from Gothenburg, Neb., is a pre-the student majoring in biology. His future plans are to attend the seminary in Dubuque and go into pastoral psychology.

"I think this is a most important and open field, since there is such an increasing demand for people in psychology," said Ron.

Classes Are Many
Among his various studies this year are a third semester of Greek, psychology and

Alumni Here For Events

Wartburg College alumni are participating in many Homecoming experiences today as they return from the outer world to college life.

Classes of '24, '29, '39, '44, '49 and '54 were reunited last night at Carver's Restaurant.

Dr. C. H. Becker spoke at the alumni chapel in the Little Theater last night. Following Kastle Kapers last night was the pep rally and bonfire, after which the class of '59 congregated in the cafeteria.

Alumni election results are announced this noon at the alumni luncheon and annual meeting at Carver's. Yesterday the annual meeting of the Wartburg Alumni Board of Directors was convened by alumni president, the Rev. Bruno Schlachtenhaufen of Waterloo. To elect an alumni secretary is a responsibility which will be faced.

After the Knights have buried the Beavers, the Little Theater will be the place for an alumni coffee, which is attended by about three to four hundred alumni annually.

Chellevoid Travels To Two Confabs

Dean of faculty Dr. John Chellevoid, who returned Friday evening from Washington, D.C., will leave Monday for Chicago, Ill., to attend a Symposium on Education and Training for Health Physics.

Dean Chellevoid was in Washington Thursday and Friday for the 42nd annual meeting of the American Council on Education. The council, which is made up of national and regional educational institutions and associations related to education, discussed "College Teaching" during the two-day sessions.

The Chicago meeting, to be held at the Argonne National Laboratory, Lamont, Ill., is sponsored by the Oak Ridge Institute of National Studies.

Camera Art Will Snap Photos Here Next Week

Fortress portraits will be taken in Wartburg Hall Lounge Oct. 13, 14 and 15 by two photographers from Camera Art, Inc., of Lewiston, Minn.

One photographer will be assigned to work on only senior pictures while the other will be in charge of underclass photos.

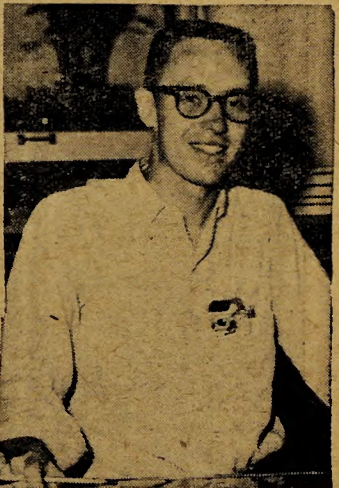

Appointments may be made by signing sheets posted across the hall from the dean of students' office in Luther Hall.

Sitting fees have been reduced since last year and will be $2 for seniors and $.50 for underclassmen. These charges may be paid at the time of appointment. No charge is made for faculty pictures.

Ed Scharlau, Fortress co-editor, emphasizes that coats and ties for the fellows and dress-up dress for the girls is a "must" when the pictures are taken. Reorders will be available in varied forms.

Organizational photos will be taken Tuesday and Wednesday in the gym. Members are asked to meet in the north balcony according to the following schedule:

TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY
6:00 Pi Beta Epsilon	KWAR
6:15 American Chemical Society	Pi Sigma
6:30 Chi Rho	Business Students
6:45 Hans Sachs Verein	MENC
7:00 Alpha Psi Omega	Trumpet

WITH HOMECOMING just about completed, Ron Beckman resumes a more leisurely schedule, which includes work in the Wartburg College Bookstore.

philosophy. Historian of Tri-Beta, Ron also is a member of Chi Rho, pre-theological society, and Camera Club. He is employed in the Wartburg bookstore.

Has Experience
A four-year member of the Wartburg student body, he has helped with various Homecoming activities in the past, last year serving on the elections committee.

"I really think this ought to be a good weekend," stated Ron, "and I certainly appreciate all the help students have given me on this year's Homecoming program."

Annual Homecoming Arrives In Blaze Of Activity

FACES ILLUMINATED by the flames, Wartburg cheerleaders pause between cheers at the Bonfire last night.

Student Conference Set At Clarksville Saturday

A Student Senate-sponsored conference on current student affairs will be held next Saturday at Heery's Woods in Clarksville. The theme for this event will be "Go with Jesus to thy task."

Roger Lageschulte, Student Body vice president and organizer, emphasizes that the conference is not a leadership retreat, but that all students are invited. "The conference is for every student who wants to realize the potentials of his college education and gain the most from his college experience," said Lageschulte.

Discussion groups will be organized and held on the three phases of college life — scholarship, spiritual growth and extracurricular activities. Everyone attending will have a chance to participate in all of these discussions.

Queen And Court Preside At Game

By Rex Grove

Many activities remain even though Wartburg's 1959 Homecoming weekend continues to move "Forever Forward."

First on the docket for the Wartburg Knights is to "Bury the Buena Vista Beavers." Game time is 2 p.m. on the college field.

Queen Dolores McMahan will be officially crowned during the game half-time by Karla Edgar Bracklein, last year's Homecoming Queen. Also included in the half-time activities will be special formations prepared by the Wartburg Marching Band.

All alumni are invited to attend a coffee hour at 4 p.m. in the Little Theater.

Parents Meet

Knights Gym will be the place for the Parents Reception, scheduled to begin at 8 p.m.

Speaker for the Homecoming Banquet beginning at 6:30 this evening at St. Paul's Parish Hall is Charles Lutz, 1953 graduate of Wartburg. He now serves as editor of One magazine, Christian youth publication.

Born in New Prague, Minn., he graduated from the Renwick (Iowa) High School in 1949. After graduating from Wartburg College, where he was editor of the Trumpet in his senior year, he attended Lutheran Theological Seminary at Columbus, Ohio, from which he graduated.

Several articles written by Lutz have appeared in the Lutheran Standard and in other church weeklies. Married in 1955, he now resides with his wife and child in Minneapolis.

Emcee for the banquet is Bob Vogel, '56 graduate of Wartburg. Hailing from Phillipsburg, Kan., he is now serving as president of the Luther League of the American Lutheran Church. At present he is a senior at Wartburg Seminary, Dubuque.

Ruesch Sings

Featured on the program will be Marilyn Ruesch, junior from Fulda, Minn. Banquetgoers will hear the same vocal number she will sing as a contestant in the forthcoming Miss Minnesota contest. Miss Ruesch was recently crowned Miss Worthington, Minn.

More winners will appear on the banquet program as a freshman quartet takes the spotlight. Winning first place at the freshman talent show, the quartet consists of Arlen Schwerin and John Dierks, Sumner; Dennis Taylor, LaPorte City; and David Nickel, Westbrook, Minn.

Banqueters will dine midst modernistic decorations using blues and greens fashioned to carry out the Homecoming theme, "Forever Forward."

Gym Is Shangrila

Following the banquet dancers will enter into the realm of "Sleepy Shangrila" to the music of Keith Killinger and his orchestra. Parents are invited to be present at the dance as guests. Tickets may be purchased at the door for $3 per couple.

The Rev. Kenneth Priebe, president of the Ohio District of the American Lutheran Church, will conduct two services Sunday morning, one at 9 a.m. in Knights Gym and one at 10:45 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Houses Open

Open house will be held from 1:30 until 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon. Guests are invited to look over the college facilities.

The newly crowned Homecoming Queen and her royal court will hold sway over the Queen's Reception to be held in Centennial Hall Lounge beginning at 3 p.m.

Final event for the big weekend is the Artist Series number Sunday at 8 p.m. in Knights Gym. Appearing will be duo pianists Luboshutz and Nemenoff, husband and wife team. As the curtain closes on this concert, another Wartburg Homecoming will have become history.

Critic Lauds 'Jump Down, Spin Around' Production

By John Loeschen

As I sat in Knights Gym last evening waiting for the curtain to rise on another edition of Kastle Kapers, I was prepared to take some critical notes on the performances. When the curtain fell, however, I found to my surprise that I had not taken one note, but had instead sat back and simply enjoyed a generally sparkling production.

The theme for the production was indeed a highly admirable one. Folk music has very deep resources from which it is possible to assemble a show with great variety of mood and interest in addition to the definite cultural element.

This Kastle Kapers accomplished to everyone's satisfaction, thanks to the direction of Ralph Hicken and Tom Christensen, and to the showmanship of the cast.

Most impressive were the highly imaginative interpretations given to several numbers on the program. "John Reilly" and "Deaf Old Woman" were accomplished through fresh approaches by performers obviously in tune with the mood and manner of the selections.

The settings for "Shenandoah" and especially "Sylvie" immediately involved the audience with the performers, and made these two numbers the most vivid and effective of the evening.

"Lass from the Low Country" is a rather difficult number to put across to an audience; but special praise is in order to Gretchen Utke for accomplishing this with artistic grace. While we are mentioning names, may I single out Jim Thomas for honors. In his chorus as well as solo work, Jim looked in complete rapport and understanding with the folk medium, and performed accordingly.

The masters of ceremonies, Gary Hummel and Roger Schneider, kept the audience on its toes, and the "ever-popular" Nolan Cramer was at his inimitable best, or worst, as you like. The occasional appearance on stage of a white "SPEAK A LITTLE louder, sir," bellows Marian Stubenvoll to Bob Kriesel at last night's production of Kastle Kapers.

Triumph convertible was a touch of sheer inspiration on the part of the director and M.C.'s.

Let us hope that "Jump

Down, Spin Around" will become an example of college-level entertainment to be followed by succeeding editions of Kastle Kapers.

Complacency Hits Its Peak

Homecoming is here again, and with it comes three annual occurrences:

1. Alumni come together at the Alma Mater.
2. A frenzied rush to prepare for all the weekend festivities.
3. Student lethargy hits its peak for the year.

When the work details begin, alibis flow fast from the mouths of the complacent clan. Few valid excuses are uttered in earnest. For the most part, most students just don't give a hang.

While interviewing faculty members about the possibility of having a student appear on one of their committees, we found the same attitude prevalent in their opinions . . . A few students are interested, but what about the rest?

Taking notice, one can readily see that this same minority group of students that do have an interest, and that do take part in a full slate of activities, are the very ones that contribute most when the going gets rough. It is the same group that pushes "forever forward" because they have developed initiative and self-responsibility.

As for the rest of the masses, they might just as well be symbolically "buried with the Beavers." They are dead.

Confab Draws Applause

Although the turn-out wasn't as large as officials hoped for, the Family Life Conference on campus the past two days was rated "very successful," by most of the participants.

High School instructors and principals went back to their stations well-armed with information and ideas on problems in the social field. Ministers and laymen also were inspired by the exchange of ideas and those brought out by the feature speakers.

Chairmaned by Wartburg Sociology Professor, Dr. August Baetke, the confab was sponsored by Wartburg College. Another Wartburg first, it drew loud personal applause from contributing and supporting members.

The President Speaks

A MESSAGE FROM DR. C. H. BECKER

During the past weeks there has been almost as much excitement on the college campus as if we were anticipating a visit from Nikita! Feverish plans and preparations have been made for "Kastle Kapers," the parade, the football game, the banquet and ball. Living quarters and lounges have been thoroughly cleaned and elaborately decorated. Careful attention is being given to make the worship service on Sunday morning especially meaningful and impressive. For what purpose?

Because Wartburg College is our Alma Mater, our college, the institution we love and respect. Because we expect many important visitors. No, not Nikita, or Ike, or Harry! But hundreds of alumni, parents, friends. Because we want them to be grateful for, and proud of, Wartburg College as we are.

And so we welcome all of you most cordially! We are proud to have you as our guests. We invite you to visit our living quarters, to make yourselves comfortable in our lounges. Be sure to visit our new library. We urge you to visit with our students and our instructors. Take time to exchange greetings with Dr. G. J. Neumann, who this year is completing his 50th year as a member of the College faculty. And finally, we invite you to worship with us on Sunday morning in the Knights Gymnasium and at St. Paul's Church.

It is a happy, glad time at Wartburg College! It is Homecoming! We're glad you came. We welcome you!

C. H. Becker
Wartburg College President

This is Homecoming weekend, but the rest are homegoing weekends for too many students.

Overheard after convo — one prof to another as they watched a student leave by leaping over the balcony railing: "That looks like a good method; shall we adopt it?"

They said it couldn't be done — that Schick would have some newfangled easy tests — and they were right.

What was Pastor Schick's answer when Mr. Lee asked him whom Nolan Cramer was impersonating at the Homecoming convo?

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"I JUST HEARD A HORRIBLE RUMOR— THAT THE TRUSTEES WILL REQUIRE ALL PROFESSORS TO PASS TH' ENTRANCE EXAM!"

Mid Knight March

By Bob Solete

The philosophy classes are taking an example from last year's Am. Lit. classes. They, too, are flunking while there is still time to flunk again. They may cheer up, though, as they have a "Brave New World" to look into!

Bury the Beavers

If Hamlet had had a Homecoming, he might have come up with the thought-provoking "To bury, or not to bury?" So, on, oh, wise and learned one.

Forever Forward

Tests and Homecoming seem to be synonymous. At best, it proves one point: a student can let his studies slide and still flunk. Aren't we amazing? Oh, well, a little more than four weeks and then it's mid-semesters.

Bury the Beavers

Here's my congratulations to the Kastle Kapers crew and to everyone who helped in its production. Good show!

Forever Forward

Once upon a midnight dreary, while I pondered weak and weary, over many an anecdote that seemed a bore — while I nodded, nearly napping, I wondered — How in the world did I get stuck writing this column?

Bury the Beavers

Question of the week: How many got caught in the "sack" when the room judges came around?

Forever Forward

This is appropriate for tonight — Good Knight-Living to all!

Tell 'Em The Trumpet Sent You

Our advertisers went overboard this week in helping to support this issue, the largest Trumpet printed in history. When you patronize them, let them know who you are, so they can tell how much they are benefiting also.

The Editors

EHRMAN ASKS

Does Campus Have Too Much Religion?

Last year when an individual tried to start floor devotions in one of the dorms, someone asked, "Why have devotions when already we have convocations twice a week, chapel five days a week, many religion courses and Sunday morning services?"

We cannot help but ask the question, "Too much religion?"

Editorial Hits Chapel

An editorial in the Trumpet last week dealt with chapel attendance. This week it is only proper to go a little further. A person must be aware of other situations before he can really answer the question "Too much religion?"

Data from other colleges reveal different points of view regarding religious activities. A student who doesn't want chapel, compulsory convo or required courses in religion may, for example, go to the School of Mines and Technology in Rapid City, S.D.

Chapel Weekly

Knox College, Galesburg, Ill., an interdenominational liberal arts college, has a weekly student body chapel service on Tuesday with speakers on religion. It does not have daily chapels.

Northwestern College, Watertown, Wis., has a chapel service each day in addition to the regular Sunday service. A communion service is held each Wednesday morning. Vespers every Tuesday night are run solely by students, and religious lectures come periodically throughout the year.

At Wartburg the question is still "Too much religion?"

Too Much Is Too Much

A man's stomach will hold only so much. It wouldn't be safe to stuff any more down his throat. When it comes to spiritual matters, the same thing applies.

A person who knows that certain foods don't agree with him will try to eat other things. Religion that has a "bitter taste" will in due time be exchanged for something else. It is quality, not quantity, that is desired.

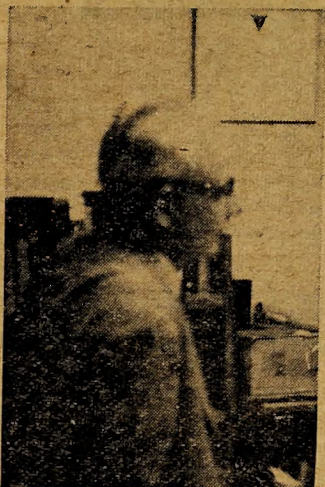

The Gospel of Jesus Christ in its purity has with it the power to change a way of life. When people are not affected by the Word, so as to make them come back for more, then it becomes worthless.

Policy Group Ponders Student Representation

President Dr. C. H. Becker, Ex-Officio of committee — He made original proposal back in 1955.

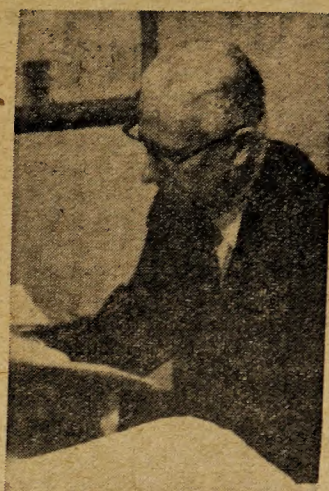

Dr. Herbert Max, head of Education Dept. — Ponders whether proposal would help students much.

Dr. Leo Petri, elected at large — Questions whether students should have a regular seat.

Dean of Students, Earnest Oppermann, on the committee in advisory capacity — Student representation is his goal.

Dr. J. O. Chellevold, Chairman of committee and Dean of Faculty — "Sounds like a reasonable request."

Dr. Lotus Knief, holds seat as newly elected at-large member — Doesn't know how committee operates yet, but has no prejudices against proposal.

The question of student representation on the faculty Educational Policies committee is currently being discussed by both faculty members and students on the Wartburg campus.

The 17-member committee is pictured. A poll this week revealed a variety of opinions regarding the matter.

Most members had not reached a clear-cut decision since thinking on the matter is only in the embryo stage. Some, however, were definitely opposed.

A majority of the policies committee members would consent to inviting the Student Body president to most of their meetings, but felt there would be times that it would be out of place for the student to attend.

Nearly all of the members questioned, "What can the student contribute?"

While it is evident that a student hasn't the experience to contribute to every issue discussed by the committee, this isn't the only measure of value that is concerned.

Understanding would be one of the main points to consider. For instance, how many students have any idea of the goals and aims of the college? A link through the Student Body president that carried down into student government would be of aid.

Students often comprehend the basic reason for a policy, but know nothing of the thinking behind the policy.

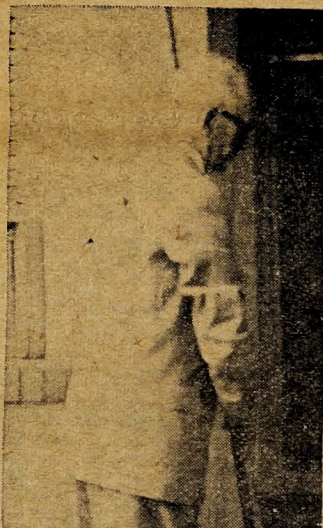

Dr. Clifford Hanson, head of Philosophy Dept. — Would welcome formal recommendations. If it would promote goals of college, he's for it.

Dr. Axel Bundgaard, head of Athletic Dept. — Isn't sure how much students could contribute.

Dr. August Baetke, head of Sociology Dept. — not ready to comment at present.

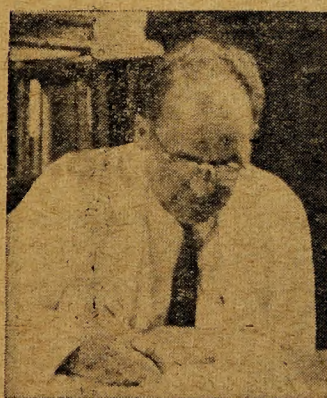

Dr. Gerhard Ottersberg, head of History Dept. — Definitely opposed, "Students don't think in academic terms."

Dr. G. J. Neumann, head of English Dept. — Wishes not to express his opinion until he has fully considered matter.

Dr. Elmer Hertel, head of Biology Dept. — There would be mutual benefit on some matters — not all.

Dr. A. E. Swensen, head of Chemistry Dept. — "Student Body presidents are responsible men." Would close some sessions for faculty only, though.

Miss Mattie Harms, college registrar — "The idea is absolutely crazy."

Dr. Edwin Liemohn, head of Music Dept. — Would raise no objection. "I'm open minded about proposal."

Prof. C. Robert Larson, at-large representative — Negative at first, but now he can see definite advantages.

Dr. Karl Schmidt, head of Christianity Dept. — Should sit down around a table and explore it deeply with students.

AN INSTITUTION AT OUR INSTITUTION

Dr. Neumann Divides 50 By 1,000's

By Grace Jahn

How many students can one professor teach in 50 years?

Sound like an impossible math problem? Well, the answer Dr. G. J. Neumann could give runs into the thousands.

One, two, three thousand students have entered a classroom to be confronted with Dr. Neumann's steady gaze. Then, without notes of any kind, he begins to talk and to intersperse his lecture with readings from the masters, and suddenly, the wide wonderful world of literature opens before the students' eyes.

Neumann 1907 Grad

After having graduated from Wartburg in 1907, Dr. Neumann spent two years of study in Germany at the University of Berlin. Upon his return he taught for a year at the University of Iowa, Iowa City, as instructor in German. This institution also awarded him an M.A. degree in 1910.

That fall, he accepted a position as head of the English Department at Wartburg, then located at Clinton—the position he holds today.

Two's Company

"It was a very small staff," commented Dr. Neumann, "there were only two of us."

To separate Dr. Neumann's illustrious career from the story of Wartburg College is almost an impossibility. He has seen the school grow into a fully accredited liberal arts institution of over one thousand students.

"The major change in college life that I have noted was the introduction of co-education. This was done a few years before we came up here (Waverly). Before that, the students led cloistered lives and spent more time on their studies," he explained.

He has seen the changes that have taken place at Wartburg, and year after year has guided the Division of Languages and Literature. Dr. Neumann also serves Wartburg as its vice president, a position he has held since 1942. From 1928-48 he was Wartburg's dean of faculty.

Years Give Experience

Fifty years of experience has given Dr. Neumann some definite views on the teaching of literature.

"I believe that courses in literature make a real contribution in living, and that the teacher should interest the student in further reading and should develop the nobler emotions using the noblest pieces of literature," he said.

Ethics Important

"I have always attached a great deal of importance to the ethical aspects of this literature," he explained.

He went on to say that a teacher of literature should do considerable interpretive reading in class, keeping in mind that he must interest the students and arouse their enthusiasm and appreciation in literature. This, he feels, can be done by reading interpretively.

Although the teaching of literature takes a lot of time, Dr. Neumann has found plenty of time to pursue his hobbies. Probably the most impressive is his writing. He has published eight volumes in all, including poems, translations of hymns and short sketches.

Much For Children

"A good deal of my writing is for children," he commented.

As far as quantity is concerned, Dr. Neumann wrote about five-hundred poems just last year.

"I compose best while walking downtown or working in my garden," he added.

Dr. Neumann serves as poetry editor for the Lutheran Standard, leading magazine of the American Lutheran Church, and has had much of his religious poetry published there.

Future Holds Poems

For the near future, he is planning a book exclusively of children's poems and would like to translate some Danish and Norwegian hymns into English.

Another hobby is his collection of first and rare editions of books, which fill four good-sized cases in his library. He has collected them from all over the United States, and his son, Edwin, has sent many from Europe.

On his last summer's trip to Europe, Dr. Neumann found more books to add to his collection, along with his collection of stamps and coins.

Heinecken Speaks

In summing up Dr. Neumann's 50 years at Wartburg—Ted Heinecken, Wartburg alumnus, did it adequately in the December, 1953, issue of One magazine.

He wrote—"When a man is connected with a college long enough to be considered an 'institution,' it's certainly a noteworthy thing. But when a man begins to represent the spirit of a school he serves, then it's more than noteworthy—it's heartwarming."

Band Prepares Show; Marches In Parade

As did everyone else, the Wartburg College Marching Band worked hard to prepare for the Homecoming festivities.

This morning it added color to the Homecoming parade.

For half-time entertainment at the game this afternoon, under the direction of Bruce Buslaff, junior, the band will present a salute to the wide-eyed freshmen. Mention will also be made of the illustrious upperclassmen, showing the sophomores as the great lovers, the juniors as the astute students and the seniors as the leaders of the college community.

Lohn Announces Library Hours

Urging all students to make the most of the facilities at the new library, Miss Perna Lohn, librarian, has listed the library hours for this year:

Monday through Friday 7:30 a.m.-9:30 p.m.

Saturday

8 a.m.-5 p.m.

Sunday

2 p.m.-5 p.m.

The library will be closed during convocations.

Reserve books may be taken out at 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday, Friday at 4 p.m. and Saturday at 3 p.m. They must be returned by 8:30 a.m. each morning except Sunday.

Luboshutz, Nemenoff Kick Off Series

The most popular piano team of our day, Luboshutz and Nemenoff, will bring down the curtain on Homecoming and open the season's Artist Series tomorrow night.

Beginning at 8 p.m., the pair will give a concert in Knights Gymnasium.

In private life Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Luboshutz, the keyboard couple, have thrilled audiences on four continents with their musical and performing skill. Pioneers in their field and probably creators of the present demand for duo-piano recitals, today Luboshutz and Nemenoff are at the peak of their career.

Famous As Soloists

The two distinguished artists, whose performances suggest a lifetime of association, actually met only after each had achieved separate fame as a solo pianist. They were introduced in Paris, where Pierre Luboshutz had been invited to conduct a master class for professionals, including Genia Nemenoff.

Soon Pierre Luboshutz had persuaded Genia Nemenoff to change her private, if not professional, name. Their professional partnership began with impromptu joint recitals given to amuse their friends.

Win Respect

In the course of their international career, Luboshutz and Nemenoff have won particular respect for their program-making ability. Besides rediscovering many works long neglected by pianists and sponsoring deserving new scores, their recitals regularly feature Luboshutz's own two-piano arrangements of many masterpieces.

Famous two-piano teams are a part of musical history. Included in this category are Mozart and his sister, Mendelssohn and Moscheles, Brahms and Taussig, Rachmaninoff and Siloti.

Are Born Artists

"Good duo-pianists are born, not made," says Luboshutz.

CLIMAXING HOMECOMING festivities will be the duo-piano team of Luboshutz and Nemenoff. Concert time is scheduled for 8 p.m. Sunday evening in Knights Gymnasium.

"Two virtuoso pianists won't necessarily make a good duo-piano team, for duo-piano playing is too intimate a form of art and depends greatly upon close communion, deep mutual understanding and respect and a careful complementing of one another's special gifts."

Despite their personal and professional partnership, Luboshutz and Nemenoff remain two distinct personalities. On the Luboshutz side there is Russian Pierre, a gay, volatile man who prefers city life. On the Nemenoff side, Genia, a Parisienne of Russian extraction, is more retiring and prefers the country.

Have Like Insight

Yet, according to critics, "They meet on a common ground of liquid tone and oneness of insight and interpretation," and "They make two pianos sound like an orchestra."

To help develop the widest possible audience for two-piano playing, Luboshutz and Nemenoff have recorded all classical as well as all modern works in the two-piano repertory.

Staff Of Castle Tells Of Contest

For the first time in three years, the staff of the Castle, Wartburg's literary magazine, is sponsoring a contest open to students.

According to Editor Grace Jahn, this year's Castle will contain art work in addition to prose and poetry. All students are invited to submit original work to the magazine, which is published each spring.

The contest will include three parts: prose, poetry and art. In the prose and poetry divisions three prizes will be awarded. They will be $10 for first prize, $5 for second prize and $3 for third prize.

Entrants in the art division will be asked to illustrate one of the prize-winning writings. The overall winner of the art division will receive a prize of $10 and will be asked to illustrate the entire 1960 Castle.

Contest rules are as follows:

1. The contest is open to all Wartburg students except members of the Castle staff and alumni. (Staff members and alumni may submit material for possible publication, but they will not be eligible for prizes.)

2. All manuscripts must be typed, double-spaced.

3. All entries must be the original work of the entrant.

In regard to originality, Editor Grace Jahn said, "Because of previous unpleasant experiences, this year's entry blank will include a declaration of original authorship, which the entrant must sign."

4. All entries must be submitted with an official entry blank attached. No names are to appear on the manuscript.

Registrations Beginning For Next Year As Admissions Get Early Applications

A number of "early bird" registrations for next year have already been received by Wartburg's admissions office, according to Fred Thompson, director of admissions.

Between 15 and 20 have been received for the 1960-61 school year and several for September, 1961.

"One important change in admissions this year," Thompson stated "is that there is $25 due at the time college application is made, which is non-refundable, and another $25 when the application is accepted."

Thompson urges college students to emphasize the importance of early registration to their friends in high school. He also urges them to encourage prospective students to take the various admissions tests offered, whether required or not, and to have results sent to Wartburg.

Concert Tryouts Scheduled By Lee

Tryouts for the Wartburg College Concert Band will be held on Monday and Tuesday with rehearsals beginning next Wednesday, according to Robert Lee, band director.

Concert band personnel will be slightly different from marching instrumentation, according to Lee. Openings occur in almost every section, and clarinetists are particularly urged to try out. Tryout time may be arranged with Mr. Lee.

Hertel To Test

Dr. Elmer Hertel, Biology Department head, will administer the Basic Science Examinations in Des Moines next Tuesday, Oct. 13.

A member of the Board of Examiners in Basic Sciences for the State of Iowa, Dr. Hertel will administer the tests to those planning to become licensed to practice any one of the healing arts in Iowa.

'One' Announces Fiction Contest

Prizes totaling $200 will be awarded in a short-story contest announced this month by One magazine for Christian youth.

Stories entered in the contest, which closes Nov. 30, must deal with youth and pertain to the Christian faith and life. Manuscripts should run between 1,500 and 3,000 words. Entries must be original and not previously published.

Entry blanks have been sent to all Lutheran college English Departments. Additional blanks are available from One, 422 S. 5th St., Minneapolis 15, Minn.

Play Needs Cast

All interested students are urged to try out for the fall play, "The Importance of Being Earnest," according to Vernon Lestrud, director.

Private tryouts will be given in Lestrud's office in the Little Theater. The cast will be selected early next week.

Rudy Bjorgan Has Time On His Hands During Football And Basketball Seasons

By Charles Jepsen

A familiar figure will be in his familiar position this Saturday when the Wartburg Knights take the field for their Homecoming encounter with the Buena Vista Beavers.

This figure is the official timer, Rudy Bjorgan, of the Wartburg History Department.

According to Bjorgan, a timer must be very familiar with all the rules. He must also have full knowledge of the official's signals. There are certain technicalities that he must keep in mind. These include such things as the proper time to start the clock after a kickoff in football and after an out-of-bounds play in basketball.

Ball Bounces That Way

"A few years ago in a basketball game, a man threw the ball clear across the floor from out of bounds and no one touched it. The fans started yelling because they thought the ball was in play and the clock wasn't running," remembers Bjorgan.

Another attribute a timer must possess is concentration. Letting his mind wander, a timer may forget to start or stop the clock.

Timing Is Instinctive

"A person must do it all the

RUDY BJORGAN bites his finger when he thinks of all the times a game could have been won or lost by a timing error in closing minutes.

time," comments Bjorgan on his art. "He must learn to do things by instinct. Whenever the referee blows his whistle, the timer must automatically stop the clock."

The biggest problem facing an official timer is that of being honest.

"Three or four years ago, Wartburg was playing Simpson, and Simpson scored a touchdown with 10 seconds to go," says Bjorgan. "I could have won the game for Wartburg because 10 seconds in a football game isn't very much."

Bjorgan Sees Opposition

When timing basketball games, Bjorgan is seated adjacent to the opposing coach and bench. He regrets to admit that sometimes he doesn't get a favorable impression of the opposition. He adds that at times they don't conduct themselves in a sportsmanlike manner.

Credit for keeping the games running smoothly must, of course, go to the officials. But they are assisted tremendously by the official timer, Rudy Bjorgan, who has become an integral part of Wartburg College home athletic contests.

Picking Up Splinters

By Jim Adix

Welcome back, grads!! Homecoming is upon us again, and we wish you an enjoyable weekend. If a few years have passed since your last visit, we hope you will be able to inspect the new home of the Knights without becoming lost or confused. Many things have changed, but I can assure you that we still have the same old spirit.

Remember when?? Let's turn the calendar back and look at Homecoming 1949. Queen Katherine Smith reigned over the festivities, highlighted by the Knights' 31-7 win over Westmar. The hero of the contest was a linebacker named Darrell Sowers, who intercepted an opposition pass and raced 55 yards to paydirt.

This year we find a squad ranked in the top 15 small college teams in the nation facing an unbeaten Beaver crew. The outcome? Don't just sit there where its warm — go and see!!

Credit where credit is due department: The man you see on the roof of the press box peeking through the lens of his movie camera isn't a spy from SUL. It's Richard Wiederanders, Engineering Department and instructor of photography, who records each Knight home game on film. This year's Homecoming event is in color, I understand. Films are available for showing for a nominal fee.

Parting thought for the week: Enjoy the Homecoming festivities, classmates, because instead of the grueling task of taking mid-term tests, we will now be forced to look at the results of our four-week exams. (Taken, of course, under severe conditions induced by eager beavers who were determined to build the world's most unusual float in one night) BURY THE BEAVERS!!!

Basketball Squad Opening Practice With Lettermen

Cage practice will get under way in Knights Gym, Nov. 1, according to basketball mentor, Dr. Ax Bundgaard.

Topping the list of returning lettermen is senior John Tuecke, high-scoring center on last year's squad. Other returning lettermen are Norm Remmers, only other senior; juniors Dave Jensen, John Mehlhaus and Duane Boehmke, who is returning after two years in the service; and sharp-shooting Darwin Oehlerich, a sophomore.

Additional returnees from last year's squad are Reuben Drefs and Marv Ott, both juniors.

Adding to this list are sophomores Dean Hølst, Don Hein, Ken Joens, Bob Mueller, Jack Bennett, Jim Borcharding, Charles Jepsen, Harold Schlachtenhaufen, Howard Simpson and Roger Will.

Bundgaard, one of the veteran coaches in the conference, feels that the team should be better offensively, but not quite so strong defensively.

"We'll start outdoor conditioning work sometime after Homecoming," Bundgaard stated. "It is up to the candidate to get himself in shape before formal practice starts."

Ott's Yards Total 1 Mile

Marv Ott, junior from Arlington, passed another milestone in last Saturday's game at Upper Iowa when he moved past the mile mark in total yards gained by picking up 173 yards against the Peacocks.

Ott has now gained 1,870 yards in 21 games for the Knights.

Marv started his work in his freshman year at Wartburg in 1957 when he picked up 451 yards. Then last year he broke a season's record for Wartburg as he gained 1,080 yards. So far this year he has gained a total of 339 yards in three games.

Wartburg's record for total yards gained by a Knight is 2,062, held by Art Margheim, a 1957 graduate.

Marv was chosen to the first team in the All-Conference selections last year as a result of great play. He now holds three Wartburg records: (1) Most touchdowns in a season — 12 (2) Most points in a season — 72 (3) Total yards on offense for a season — 1,080.

Ott is six feet tall, weighs 175 pounds and can pass with either hand. He is also a Little All-American candidate this year. His overall average yardage is about 89.5 yards per game.

TACKLES HIS JOB

Ron Krueger Vital To Jomen Victories

By Charles Jepsen

One person who is a vital part of all Knight victories is a rugged tackle, Ron Krueger.

The 200-pound senior from Waupun, Wis., may well receive many deserved honors this year for his play on the gridiron.

Despite the fact that he is one of the heaviest men on this year's squad, Ron lettered four years in high school as a halfback and end.

At Wartburg Ron was switched to tackle and has thus far won three letters for his play at that position.

Rates Honorable Mention

Last year Krueger was given honorable mention in the Iowa Conference. He also had the privilege of receiving honorable mention on Williamson's Little All-America team.

All one has to do is observe Krueger in action to see why his presence is of such immense value to the Knights, as his leadership makes the team work as a unit.

"He is the team's leader through action, not just noise," says Head Coach Norm Johansen. "The other players definitely rely on his playing."

This statement seems to indicate that Ron helps the team not only physically, but psychologically as well.

He Loves Game

His love of the game and desire to play is obvious.

"Ron has a wonderful attitude," comments Johansen. "He does everything we tell him. He is constantly trying to improve himself."

Krueger's uniform, the first dirty and the one most soiled at the game's completion, is an indication of his participation in every offensive and defensive play.

Says Johansen, "Ron's ability on offense and

IM Football Spangled With Forfeits; Ketha-Cotta-Alpha Victim Of Plague

Intramural football was highlighted last week by forfeits.

Ketha-Cotta-Alpha lost the chance to tie Grossmann III for first place by forfeiting to Grossmann I & Basement.

Ketha-Cotta-Alpha did, however, pick up 2 wins, both forfeits, over Clinton I and over Vollmer House. Vollmer House, in addition, forfeited another game to Clinton II. Grossmann III took a forfeit win over North Hall.

In the only games played, Grossmann II edged North Hall 27-20 with North Hall on the 3-yard line when the final whistle blew. Waverly Off-Campus kept its record clean by walloping Clinton II 41-0.

With the season half gone the race isn't being decided by real wins or losses, but rather by forfeits.

In other intramural action Bob Johnsen tripped Neil Stuhmer last Saturday to win the singles event of the tennis tournament. Stuhmer came out a winner, however, as he and Don Dietzler took the doubles event.

Unbeaten Knights Seek 12th Win In A Row Today

Line Up Against Buena Vista At 2

By Don Bathgate

Today's Lineup

Wartburg	Position	BV
Mueller	LE	Subbert
Wallin	LT	Sanders
Arjes	LG	Craig
Collmann	C	Jaacks
Sahling	RG	Mortinson
Krueger	RT	Halkik
Nichol	RE	McCaulley
Ott	QB	Grigsby
V' Wyngarden	LH	Hinman
Jensen	RH	Lineweaver
Raper	FB	Nieman

Wartburg's Knights will lay their 3-0 conference record and their consecutive winning streak of 11 on the line this afternoon in Schield Stadium when they tackle a powerful Buena Vista squad in Wartburg's Homecoming tilt.

Game time is scheduled for 2 p.m. as the only two undefeated teams in the Iowa Conference battle it out for top berth in the Iowa Conference standings.

Today's game will feature two of Iowa's finest quarterbacks in the persons of Buena Vista's Lanny Grigsby and Wartburg's Marv Ott.

Ott Goes Mile

Grigsby is within 10 yards of a mile gained in his college career while Ott, only a junior, bettered the mile mark in last week's game with Upper Iowa.

Buena Vista, scoring in every period, trimmed Westmar 36-0 last Saturday in a non-conference game to move its record to 3-0.

Grigsby gained 121 yards to give Buena Vista 365 yards gained compared to only 98 for Westmar.

Prepare Defense

Coach Norm Johansen has been working with the Knights' defensive this week in an attempt to counteract the passing threats of Grigsby.

Coach Johansen stated that Buena Vista will be the toughest team Wartburg has met this season, as it has good balance, with the passing game being its strong point.

Only One Casualty

Wartburg's injury list should carry only one name with Lowell Junkman, Don Sowers, Roger Hildebrandt and Norm Mielke all expected to be ready to go today. Coach Johansen reports that it is doubtful that Darwin Bunger will be able to play because of a sprained ankle.

The Knights have the edge in the series with 11 wins, 8 losses and 1 tie. Last year the Knights rolled over the Beavers by a 32-7 score. They also were on top the year previous by a 21-6 count.

Runners Snare First Victory

Wartburg's cross-country team won its first meet of the season yesterday by edging Simpson, 22-33.

Marv Corporan captured first place for the Knights by running the three-mile course in 16 minutes 50.5 seconds. Simpson's Mitchell managed second, while Don Dietzler came in third for the Wartburg squad.

Fourth spot went to Kalbenbert of Simpson with Fred Lichte, Clint McLagan, and Uwe Strehmel grabbing fifth, sixth and seventh for Wartburg.

Simpson's Acheson was eighth, Williams ninth and Fillman tenth.

COACH NORM Johansen briefs his four quarterbacks, Dick Bixby, Howie Simpson, Marv Ott and LeRoy Boseneiler, in preparation for today's tangle with Buena Vista.

Lineman Of The Week

Ron Krueger, Waupun, Wis., was chosen the Trumpet's third Lineman of the Week, receiving four out of the five possible votes from the panel.

Chuck Wallin, last week's winner, was the recipient of the other vote cast.

Krueger was selected on the basis of his outstanding defensive and offensive work as tackle in last Saturday's 41-6 romp over Upper Iowa.

WIN STREAK AT 11

Ott's Passing Subdues Upper Iowa

Wartburg's football squad ran its winning streak to 11 last Saturday night by traveling to Fayette and making Doc Dorman's 56th anniversary rather unpleasant by trouncing the Upper Iowa Peacocks 41-6.

After a scoreless first period Q.B. Marv Ott took over with his passing arm and the sky literally fell as the Knights scored at will and racked up 27 points before the Peacocks made their only score of the game immediately before the half.

Cold Half

Wartburg cooled off after the half and only managed to score one touchdown in each of the remaining two periods to end up with a 41-6 victory.

Tom Van Wyngarden scored twice in the big second period as he caught a pass from Ott for 48 yards and ran the other from the five-yard line. Larry Raper also tallied in the second period with a one-yard run, and Dave Jensen scored once in the second on an eight-yard pass from Ott.

Nichol Worth Six

In the third period Chuck Nichol scored from the 28-yard line on a pass from Ott, and Don Lehmann capped the fourth period with a 19-yard pass play, also from Ott.

The Peacocks' only score came in the final minute of the second period when Tom Toman passed 31 yards to Denie Brumm in the endzone.

Dave Jensen hit on five out of six while kicking the extra points for the Jomen.

A PEACOCK plucked at the line of scrimmage by the Knight forward wall shows why "Doc" Dorman didn't have a happy anniversary.

Niemann Named Month's Athlete

Bob Niemann, sophomore linebacker on Coach Norm Johansen's defensive platoon, has been selected Athlete of the Month for September by the W Club. Bob was also honored two weeks ago when he was chosen lineman of the week.

So far this season Bob has been doing an outstanding job, according to Coach Johansen.

In the Luther game he recovered two fumbles deep in Norse territory, following which the Knights converted the m into touchdowns. As a result Wartburg took a commanding lead and went on to defeat Luther 26-0.

As a result of Bob's efforts, as well as of those of his fellow teammates, Wartburg possesses the best defensive record in the conference. Niemann has also seen action at fullback on the Knights' offensive unit.

He is a sophomore from Charles City and is enrolled in a pre-optometry course.

Face Ill. Normal Next Saturday

Wartburg's football squad will play a non-conference game next Saturday, when the Knights travel to Normal, Ill., to tangle with an unbeaten Illinois State Normal University team.

The ISNU Redbirds, under the guidance of Coach Edwin Struck, are rated as one of the more powerful teams in Illinois. Today they play a highly rated Central Michigan University squad in their fourth game of the season.

This year will be the first time that the two teams have met. ISNU ended up fifth in the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference last year with a 2-4 record. It was 3-6 for the season.

ISNU, a much larger school than Wartburg, with an enrollment of 4,200, is expected to give the Knights a good run for their money.

Game time is scheduled for 2 p.m. at McCormick Field, which has a seating capacity of five thousand. A large crowd of Wartburg alumni is expected to view the game.

Knights Rated 15th By NAIA

Wartburg's football squad picked up some more honors as it was listed 15th in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics football ratings Wednesday.

The Knights are undefeated this year and have a consecutive winning streak of 11 games.

Other Iowa Conference teams gaining recognition included Luther with Brad Hustad listed fourth in rushing with 293 yards in 70 carries. Parsons' Jim Keltner was listed sixth in punting with a 44.9 yard average in 14 kicks.

BV Beavers Hang Out In Storm Lake; Natural Habitat Under Knight Scrutiny

By Linda Mugridge
"Bury the Beavers!"
Schield Stadium shakes with the yell as the Wartburg Knights take the field today against the Buena Vista Beavers.

Out of their natural habitat, Storm Lake, the 11 football Beavers represent around five-hundred students enrolled at Buena Vista College. Founded in 1891, BV is a four-year, coeducational liberal arts college.

BV Presbyterian

Buena Vista is affiliated with the Presbyterian Church, and its trustees are elected by the Presbyterian Synod of Iowa. Compulsory chapel is held once weekly. Like Wartburg, a spiritual emphasis week is scheduled each February.

Seven buildings dot the BV campus. Included among the seven is a new administration-classroom building, a replacement for Buena Vista's Old Main, which burned in 1956.

Dorms Come In Twos

Buena Vista has two dormitories, one of each kind. The three-story men's dorm, dedicated in 1956, houses the student recreational center. BV'ers eat in the basement of the women's dormitory.

The aim of the college, according to its Public Relations Department, is to provide means for developing student understanding of the relationships of man to his God, to his fellow man, to himself and to the physical and biological world.

Faculty Has 42

Buena Vista's faculty numbers 42. The school itself includes the divisions of languages and literature, natural sciences, social science, religion and philosophy, fine arts, teacher education and business administration.

Like Wartburgers, BV students may carry between 12 and 18 credit hours each semester. Unlike Wartburg, Buena Vista is on a three-point, not a four-point, grading system.

Buena Vista is similar to Wartburg in yet another respect. As of this morning, it boasted the only other undefeated football team in the Iowa Conference.

"Knip the Knights!" shout the Buena Vista Beavers.

ONE OF THE NEW structures on the Buena Vista campus is this recently completed $440,000 Administration Building. The Beavers of BV will furnish the opposition for the Knights this afternoon at 2.

Does a fellow really need life insurance before he is married?

We won't give you a flat answer, because we might be prejudiced. After all, we're in the life insurance business, and we think it is extremely important to see our fellow Lutherans adequately protected.

Ask your banker, your doctor, professor, or any adviser whom you trust. Chances are about 95 to 1 he will say yes. Any young man should have at least enough insurance to cover final expenses in event of death from sudden illness or accident.

Even more important is the fact that your premiums will never again be so low. You'll see what we mean when you look at these premium rates for our most popular policy, the Brotherhood Provider, in the amount of $10,000:

Age	20	25	30	35
Annual Premium	$156.90	$180.20	$209.30	$245.80
Monthly Premium	14.12	16.20	18.80	22.10
For each dollar paid in you get back at 65*	1.87	1.67	1.50	1.32
Monthly income at age 65* (Male)	81.50	74.30	67.50	59.80

Note that the annual premium goes up 33% from age 20 to 30—and you get back about 20% less on every dollar.

One further point: when you marry, you'll have lots of other expenses. Get started now on your life insurance program. It makes sense from every angle. See your Lutheran Brotherhood representative, or write the home office.

Student Government Leads Way For Wartburgers

EDITOR'S NOTE — An active student government leads forward in all phases of student's lives. The following four pages are devoted to the solons with special recognition for their having solicited ads for this section. We start by spotlighting the student senators.

JIM EISSINGER
Senior senator Jim Eissinger, a pre-law student with a philosophy — German major, can look back to his high school days in Wishek, N.D., with justifiable pride.

Jim was class president his freshman, junior and senior years, and helped organize a student council in his school. He graduated at the top of his class scholastically and was honored for leadership and extracurricular activities.

After spending a year at Concordia College, St. Paul, Minn., Jim transferred to Wartburg and since has participated in many college activities, including Wartburg Choir and debate, which he regards as his favorites.

Dramatics is another love, but an active college life has left him little time to indulge. Graduate work in philosophy is a possible next step for this Wartburg solon.

JOEL DIEMER
Joel Diemer, another senior member of the senate, is also active in the World Affairs Forum and Chi Rho here on campus. He is interested in classical music, traveling and professional athletics.

Joel went to Milwaukee Lutheran High School. There he participated in football and baseball and was a member of the Lettermen's Club. Joel is now a pre-the student, majoring in history.

NANCY CROSMAN
An honorable senior member of the Senate, Nancy Crosman is in secondary education with an English major. She is active in the Wartburg Choir and Mission Fellowship.

Nancy was president of the Student Council in her high school, at Chillicothe, Ill. Her hobby? She loves to knit.

CATHY CARR
Cathy Carr, is from Monona, is one of the senators from the junior class. Besides this activity she is kept busy with Ushers Club, Phebes and Lutheran Student Association.

Cathy likes music and participates in the Wartburg Symphony. She also plays the piano for her own enjoyment. On the reading side, Cathy always enjoys a good murder mystery.

DICK JEBSEN
When Dick Jebesen came to Wartburg from Blue Island, Ill., in 1957 he was elected vice president of the freshman class. Service continued in his sophomore year as president and now in his junior year as a senator. College activities for the pre-theological Greek major have included Wartburg Choir, W Club, Chi Rho and Mission Fellowship.

Dick lives at a Waverly motel, where he is employed.

ART BAKER
Last year's frosh president, Art Baker, retains his senate seat this fall as a sophomore senator. A pre-the student and member of Castle Singers, Art is also active in Luther League, where he has served as federation and Iowa District recreation promoter.

Art's career at East High School in Waterloo was filled with athletics, music and class offices.

GRACE JAHN
Service in the student senate is only part of a busy college life for junior Grace Jahn. Grace is feature editor of the Trumpet for the second year and sits behind the editor's desk of the Castle, a publication of which she was associate editor last year.

Miss Jahn is an English major and a journalism minor planning a career in secondary education.

Other activities claiming her time include Student Education Association, Pi Sigma, Ushers Club and Luther League.

DEAN HOLST
Dean Holst, sophomore senator and former freshman vice president, is a general science major with the goal of becoming a high school teacher.

The Keystone (Iowa) High School graduate is active in Walliher League, plays basketball for Wartburg and is a cafeteria employee. Favorite pastimes for Dean are popular music and athletics.

MARY WILHARM
Mary Wilharm, sophomore senator, likes mountain climbing and people with an extraordinary sense of humor. This summer gave her the opportunity to enjoy both while working at a "Y" Conference camp in Colorado.

A Waverly High grad, Mary was active in choir, dramatics and Luther League. At Wartburg she participates in debate and student government. Mountain climbing is not offered in the curriculum for geographical reasons.

RON BECKMAN
Student government is nothing new to freshman senator Ron Beckman. An active high school career of holding offices was climaxed for this pre-the student from Waltham, Minn., by service as student council president last year.

Ron is also active in church work and is serving as Minnesota District Luther League Service Promoter. He was Sunday School superintendent in his home church for four years.

Hobbies for Ron include the accordion, vocal music and fishing.

KAREN VOGEL
Karen Vogel is also representing the freshman class in the Senate. She is experienced in student government, as she was a class officer in Phillipsburg, Kan., High school for two years.

Karen's field of study is four-year elementary education. She enjoys sports and was a cheerleader in high school. She also likes music and is a member of Castle Singers.

DAVE ALLEN
Dave Allen, a freshman senator, was active in the Choir Latin Club, Hi Y and Lettermen's Club, among other things while in high school at Sterling, Ill. He also played basketball and football.

Here at Wartburg so far, Dave is just concentrating on getting through school, he says.

GARY HUMMEL
History major Gary Hummel of Garrison, N.D., is holder of the senior class gavel. Gary is a member of the varsity golf team and W-Club. Last year he held the vice presidency of the junior class.

Post-graduation plans include marriage next summer and graduate work in history next fall.

LARRY COLLMANN
Football is one of the main college interests for junior class president Larry Collmann. Other activities for the Manson student include W Club and Business Students Association. Larry is married and has a trailer court address.

DENNIS TAYLOR
After serving as his high school senior class president, freshman Dennis Taylor, La Porte City, was elected freshman class president at the beginning of his college career here.

Dennis, who is enrolled as a pre-veterinary medicine student, plans to go out for basketball when that time rolls around.

BOB ALBERS
Sophomore president Bob Albers, a pre-the student from Walters, Minn., is a member of Chi Rho, pre-theological society, and during his freshman year participated in band and German choir. Either German or Greek will probably be his choice as a major.

During his high school days, Bob served as editor of the school paper and was twice elected class president.

Norm Litzner Swings Gavel

By Don Keene

Literally a knight in shining armor, Student Body President Norm Litzner headed the Homecoming parade this morning.

During the rest of the school year, Norm heads student government. As SBP, he represents over one thousand students to the faculty and administration, to other colleges and universities and to the Waverly community.

Norm's student government activities go back to high school days. A representative on his student council in Cheboygan, Mich., Norm was elected vice president of the group during his senior year.

At Wartburg Norm served as vice president of his freshman class. He was president both his sophomore and junior years. When he was a sophomore, Norm supervised freshman initiation and the annual Campus Carnival.

A history major, Norm is a pre-theological student, one of the Alpha House Aristocrats. Wartburg Seminary at Dubuque will be the next step to his becoming a parish minister.

"I have a special interest in home missions," he said.

In a constant search for ways of improving student government, Norm is active in a position involving personal contact with students as well as faculty.

Being head of the senate executive committee, coordinator of all committees and a representative of students on various student-faculty committees keeps Wartburg's prexy walking on a tight wire between students and faculty. "The program of student government is the training of good citizens," said Norm. "It helps people recognize the importance of taking part in their government as good citizens."

Highlighting last summer for Norm was the National Student Association Conference for Student Body Presidents, which met at the University of Illinois. Champaign,

SLIGHTLY SADDLE-SORE, student body president Norm Litzner relaxes after a strenuous week of horsemanship. Out of armor, Norm devotes most of his time to governmental affairs.

III. During the previous summer Norm was a Parish Mission Builder in California.

On campus, he works about twelve hours a week in the Den. A hometown laundry is his usual summer refuge.

Past Prexies Pass In Review

By Linda Mugridge

Probably the best-known student on this campus is Norm Litzner, Student Body president.

Norm's antecedents go back to somewhere between 1879 and 1933, when the first Wartburg College Student Body president was elected with the title "senior." Since that time the faces have changed, but the position remains the same.

The first issue of the 1935-36 Wartburg Trumpet heralded the election of August Engelbrecht III as "senior." During that year, 1935-36, Engelbrecht headed campus government for 182 students.

He's Pre-The

A pre-theological student, Engelbrecht was interested in the campus literary society, dramatics and male chorus. In the spring he pitched for the baseball team.

Less than a month ago Dr. August Engelbrecht died of bulbar polio. He had been professor at Wartburg Seminary, Dubuque.

During the spring of 1949, two English majors from North

Keller, a star basketball player, chaired Homecoming activities 11 years ago. Pipe-smoking Bonderud was best known as Trumpet editor and originator of the student directories.

The Rev. James Keller, complete with wife and three children, is currently serving his hometown congregation in Jamestown, N. D. Bonderud, who lives in Columbus, Ohio, is again editor—this time for youth publications of the American Lutheran Church.

In 1950-51 Norm Fintel was elected president for 587 students. Having served for 19 months as an air force cadet, Fintel attended both the Lincoln Aviation Institute and the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, Neb. He was also an aircraft and engineering mechanic before enrolling at Wartburg.

Fintel Travels

The summer before his senior year Fintel traveled over 15,000 miles contacting Wartburg students. This signaled the future, because today Norman Fintel is Wartburg Public Relations director.

A total of 694 students enrolled during 1954-55, the year Tom Loftus was Student Body president. Loftus, a biology major from Benson, Ill., was a transfer student from Eastern Illinois State College, Charleston, Ill.

Loftus, who served his internship at Madison, Wis., graduated from Wartburg Seminary last spring. He is currently doing graduate work at Princeton Seminary, Princeton, N. J.

Dancing Comes

In 1956-57, the year dancing and dress-up night became a reality to 837 Wartburg students, Don Altmann held the highest student office. A cafeteria worker, Altmann was a history major from Marshfield, Wis.

Like Loftus, Altmann entered Wartburg Seminary upon graduation. Like Loftus, he is interning at Madison, Wis.

They come and they go, the best-known students on campus. The faces change, but the position remains the same.

Student Prexy Speaks

Dear Visitors and Fellow Students,

It is a pleasure to welcome you to the 1959 Homecoming festivities. We hope that our visitors will join with us in celebrating this happy occasion.

A splendid program has been planned which will keep most of us occupied for the entire weekend. We cordially invite you to share the Lord's Day with us by attending Campus Worship at 9 Sunday morning in Knights Gymnasium.

"Forever Forward" is a fitting theme for Wartburg's Homecoming in every respect. For those of you who have been away from our campus for some time, the changes and improvements which have taken place are quite evident. Even to those of us who have been here for some time and to the present freshman class, these advancements are very noticeable.

When I say our theme is fitting in every respect, I include not only the physical structure, but also the academic and social aspect. Along with this progress of Wartburg, student government has also pushed forward, groping into new areas of student interest and accepting new responsibilities.

From the days when student government was merely an organization which dealt with the social aspect of campus life, this organization has developed a keen interest in the religious, cultural and academic welfare of the students.

Such progress is readily seen in the formation of the Campus Congregation and the active work of the academic and welfare committees.

Thus, just as Wartburg College is striving "Forever Forward," student government, as a prominent part of Wartburg, will continue to press forward.

Once again we welcome all of you and invite you to join with us in moving "Forever Forward."

Sincerely yours,
Norm Litzner, SBP

WAVERLY'S ROG LAGESCHULTE

VP Is First Married Officer

By Don Keene

A Wartburg "first" is Roger Lageschulte, student body vice president from Waverly.

Rog lays claim to being the first married student to become a student body officer. His spouse is the former LeOraLee Olsen, a past Wartburg cheerleader, who is presently employed at a Waverly bank as head bookkeeper and teller. The couple make their home in the trailer court.

The year 1959 is also the first Rog has served in student government. Although he acted as Junior-Senior Prom chairman last year, he did not really become a Student Senate member until this year.

"A person doesn't realize all the activity going on until he gets on the inside — into government," he says.

Rog states that being student body vice president calls for, "practical application of all I have learned in college."

To keep student government as an organization functioning properly is a general definition of the responsibility of student body vice president. Rog's main function in his words is "to represent the interests of the students by giving time and service to the best interests of the student body."

Pre-law is his course of study, and he will have earned a business major and an English minor by graduation. His schedule this fall includes Russian, the language which has "invaded Wartburg's curriculum."

After Roger's graduation next spring, the Lageschultes plan to leave for Denver, Colo., where the v.p. will study law at Denver University.

Business Students Association, Young Republicans and Ushers Club constitute his extracurricular activities.

Young Republicans brought about a high point for Rog in that he was selected as one of 20 Iowa college students to spend a "Week in Washington" last year. During this time he stayed at the home of a congressman, met Sam Rayburn, speaker of the House of Representatives, and Kentucky Senator Thurston Morton, head of the Republican party.

Wartburg's Political Science Department selected him for this distinction as a result of his campus political activities.

As president of Ushers Club, he presented to singer Marian Anderson a bouquet of roses at last year's Artist Series concert.

MAJORING IN MUSIC, student body secretary Marilyn Nissen spends many hours in the Fine Arts Center. Other activities for her include Choir and band membership.

In addition to his classes and political work, Rog drives a school bus for Waverly High School and works part-time as an electrician's assistant.

He has been granted three scholarships during his career at Wartburg. They include the Rohlf Memorial Clinic Scholarship, a class scholarship and an Iowa District Lutheran Brotherhood Scholarship, all of which make things easier for Wartburg's first married student government official.

Best-Dressed Girl Sought

Wartburg College will participate in a contest to find the 10 best-dressed college girls in the United States and Canada. The Wartburg Trumpet will sponsor the contest on this campus in conjunction with Glamour magazine. A Wartburg coed will be selected by a panel of judges as the best-dressed girl on campus.

Pictures of her in a campus outfit, in an off-campus outfit and in a date-time outfit will be sent to Glamour magazine for judging.

The magazine will judge the "10 Best" on the basis of 10 points, including such qualifications as good figure, posture, grooming and management of a clothes budget.

This is the fourth year Glamour magazine is holding this contest. The 10 girls selected will receive all-expense trips to New York City, where they will be entertained by the editors of Glamour.

The contest will be conducted here in the near future.

Liemohn Writes For Encyclopedia

Dr. Edwin Liemohn, director of the Wartburg Choir, has been asked to prepare an article for the forthcoming Lutheran Encyclopedia.

The encyclopedia, which is being prepared under the direction of the Lutheran World Federation, will consist of three or four volumes with each volume containing a thousand pages. It is scheduled to be available at the next Assembly of the Lutheran World Federation, which will be held in Helsinki, Finland, in 1963.

The Wartburg Trumpet just missed again.

A recent Associated Collegiate Press announcement showed the Trumpet as First Class for the second semester of last year, missing the coveted All-American honor rating by a narrow margin.

The Trumpet fell only a few points short the first semester of last year also. Ed Schaley, 1948-'59 editor, is now serving his stint in the Army.

MAKING GOVERNMENT HISTORY,

Marilyn Nissen Plies Pencil

By Don Keene

"I find being student body secretary very stimulating," says senior Marilyn Nissen.

Being secretary to the student body, student senate and the executive committee constitutes most of Marilyn's minute-taking. She derived experience as secretary to the Iowa District Luther League and as Dorm Council secretary in South Centennial, where she is proctor.

"Secretaries should not just take minutes, but should be thinking individuals who can express their own ideas and actively participate in the group as well as any other person."

This opinion keeps Marilyn a busy gal in her work, for she has the responsibility to keep accurate accounts of all government proceedings.

Senator Nissen was her title her freshman year. She served on the Public Relations Committee her sophomore year.

"The Music Woman" could very well describe Marilyn's activities and curriculum. She is a music major working toward a B.M.E. degree. Although piano is her main instrument, she tooted a French horn in Wartburg's band three years. She has been drum majorette the past two years.

A four-year choir member, Marilyn attended the Lutheran World Federation Assembly in Minneapolis with the choir.

The Choir's European tour proved to be "wonderful" for the Knight-Lites, a senior vocal trio composed of Marilyn, Dorathy Miller and Meredith Stuhmer. In Germany their voices were heard over Stuttgart Radio Station in Stuttgart, Germany. They also sang for a Sunday morning worship service in the New York Bronx.

The Knight-Lites began as sophomores for personal enjoyment but are now making a business of their trio.

"We are open for any engagements," quipped Marilyn.

Piano lessons and voice lessons mean practice, practice, practice. Next semester she will student teach in both the elementary and secondary departments of music.

"I am very much interested in the field of instrumental music. I want to teach public school instrumental music," said Marilyn about her post-graduation plans.

SHOWING CHIVALRY is not dead, student body vice president Roger Lage-schulte helps his wife into the family Volkswagen. The governmental couple calls the trailer court home.

County Home Visitations and Mission Fellowship are also activities in which Marilyn has participated during her college career.

Summers find Marilyn as a farm girl, helping her dad in the fields. Measuring corn acreage allotment for the government occupied two of Marilyn's summers. She has also been foreman of a corn detasselling crew four years.

The 1959-60 school year finds Marilyn as student body secretary, helping Norm Litzner, student body prexy. Recording government minutes occupies much of her time. She is one of the fore-women on campus.

Frosh Elect Class Heads

Dennis Taylor, a major in pre-veterinary medicine from La Porte City, was recently elected president of the freshman class.

The vice president is Marvin Cornoran, a physical education major from Sheffield. Elected to the secretary's position was Julie Mensing of Waverly, an education major, and Howie Schuschu, a pre-theology major from Cresskill, N. J., was elected treasurer.

David Allen, Karen Vogel and Ron Beckman were elected representatives to the Student Senate. Barry Greene was elected Homecoming float chairman.

The class voted to have dues of 50 cents a semester.

Senate Probes Spirit

Student body spirit was the question raised in 1937 by the Student Senate. Members thought that there was . . . "insufficient interactivities between boys and girls."

"The problem is the same now, just 20 years old," commented Norm Litzner, student body prexy.

European Tour Gives Wartburg Choir Extended Travel And Close Contact

By Bill Goetz

Even in an age when the world has grown smaller as a result of modern means of communication and transportation, the 1959 European Tour of the Wartburg Choir provided its members with a rare travel experience.

Although hundreds of thousands of Americans visit foreign lands annually, few are able to enjoy our recent experience of both extended travel and close contact with the people in the lands visited.

Tour Makes Memories

We returned from our tour with memories of many of the more famous tourist attractions—Westminster Abbey, the Tower of London, the Cologne Cathedral, Tivoli in Copenhagen and the Roskilde Cathedral, to name but a few.

In addition, we will remember some of the less famous places we were able to visit, among them the beautiful Coburg Castle; a little-traveled road which passes within a few yards of the bare dirt and barbed wire marking the Iron Curtain; the village church at Soerup, Germany, now nearly a thousand years old; the museum at Schleswig, Germany, containing many relics from prehistoric times; and the beautiful city park at Cologne.

In many of the cities where we gave concerts, we were privileged to stay in the homes of families of church members, providing us with invaluable opportunities to learn about inhabitants by mingling with the people themselves in the warm and friendly atmosphere of their homes.

Impressions Limited

It is nearly impossible to draw any really valid generalizations about the Dutch, German, Danish or English people as a whole from the contacts we had. The impressions which follow are taken only from our limited experience.

Hospitality and helpfulness were experienced by all of us in many ways. Each of us was shown the willingness of our hosts to help us in any way possible and the friendliness of people in general. At the British Museum in London, a busy official took time to point out the desks in the reading room where many famous authors had worked.

Hate Goes

Many of us were greatly impressed by the way the hatreds fostered by World War II have passed away. It seemed to us from the attitude now held in Germany toward America that it was impossible that our nation could have been at war with that nation so recently. We saw in many ways how the present alliance between our nation and West Germany is one between people as well as between governments.

ALTHOUGH THE CHOIR'S European tour is now nothing but a memory, pictures such as these make it come alive for choir member Bill Goetz as he examines possible souvenirs.

We noted a remarkable industriousness exhibited by the German people, both in their attitude toward their work and in the results of their efforts in the past 14 years to rebuild their war-torn country. This industriousness is evidenced as well by the attitude of many German high school students, who regard the academic nature of their training with great seriousness.

Audiences Appreciative

Throughout Europe the choir sang to audiences highly appreciative of fine music. Their acquaintance with the works that we performed was evident in the questions they asked us about them and the comments they made. A general appreciation of culture was evident in the average German home. For example, copies of paintings by master artists are often placed on the walls of a home, rather than just pictures.

The result of all these impressions, and others, has been to create for many choir members a desire to return to the lands we have visited. We also hope that the Wartburg Choir of a future year may return to Europe, again to bring to its people the Christian message in song.

Wandering With Wandersee

By Winnie

Here's an opportunity for all you over-zealous, cultural-minded, under-worked students — or any other student, for that matter.

The Castle is sponsoring a contest and — take heed, literate students — it's a literary contest. Prose, poetry and art work will be considered fair game. Obtain your entry blank from Dr. Edwin Sandberg, adviser, or Grace Jahn, editor.

The thrifty student should note that cash prizes will be offered for any unusual display of talent.

The Student Education Association will gather in the Fine Arts Building at 7 p.m. next Monday. A panel of Waverly teachers will be answering that all-important question, "What Do I Expect of a Student Teacher?"

Don't forget the ISEA regional meeting at Clark College, Dubuque. The date is Oct. 13, and all red-blooded SEA members are encouraged to attend.

Election of officers was on the agenda for the first debate team meeting of this year. Dean Engbrecht, senior, was elected president; Deanne Stob, junior, vice president, and Meta Fokkena, sophomore, secretary.

The resolution for this year reads like this: "Resolved, That Congress shall have power to reverse the decision of the Supreme Court."

As anyone can see, it's debatable.

Tri-Beta will meet at 7:30 Wednesday night. On the program will be Stan Wise, a graduate of Wartburg and graduate of the Dental College at the State University of Iowa.

Wise will show movies of his expedition in Alaska, and discuss some of his research at Point Barrow last summer.

Autograph Party Today In Gym

An autograph party for the Rev. Walter Tillmanns, Wartburg Modern Languages Department, will be held in Knights Gymnasium this afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30.

On sale at the party will be first copies of Tillmanns' new book, "The World and Men Around Luther." Selling for $5.95, the book has just come off the presses of the Augsburg Publishing House.

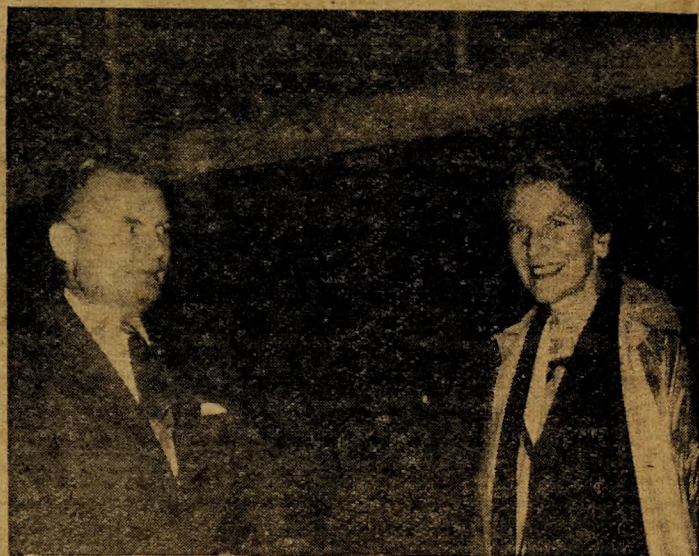

Pastor Tillmanns will be on hand to autograph newly purchased copies of his book.

Cupid Hits Again

Cupid's arrows again took their toll this week as one Wartburger married and another became engaged.

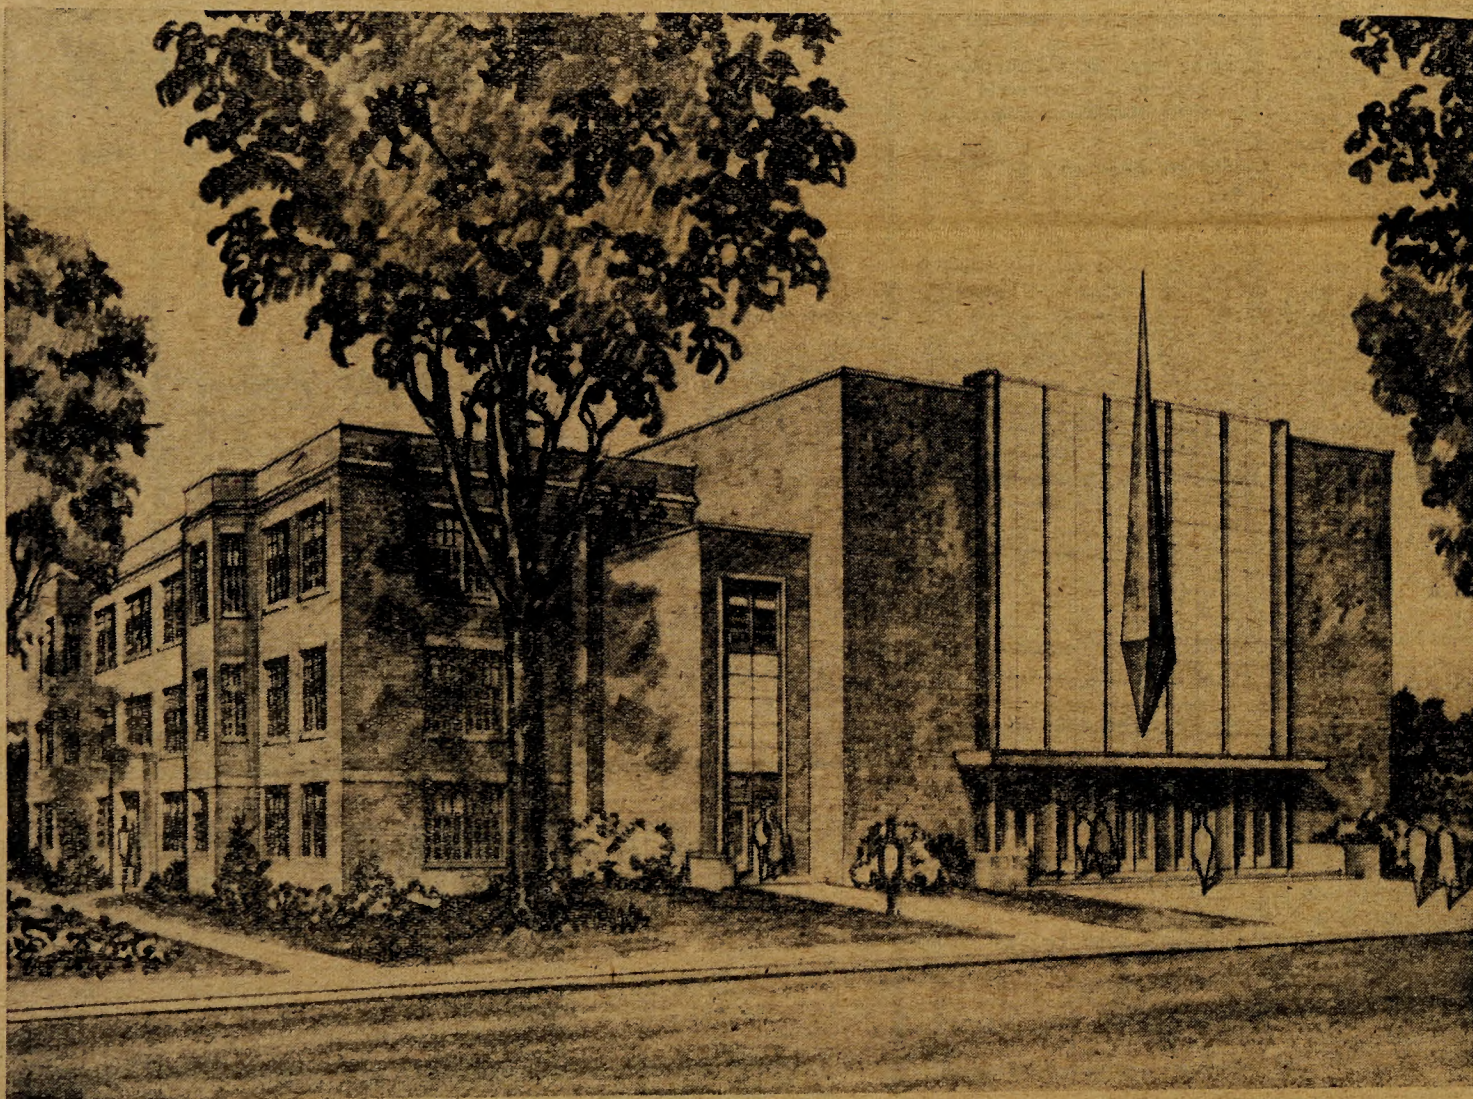

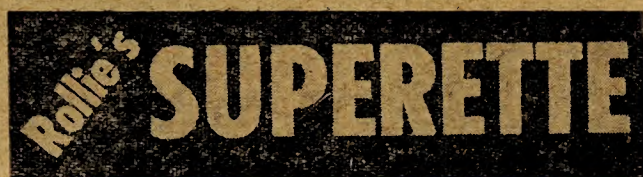

Married at Manson Oct. 4 was sophomore Lowell Junkman, a native of Manson. He and his bride, the former Jolene Peterson, also of Manson, are living in the college trailer court.

Betty Waltmann, junior from Cedar Falls, recently received a diamond from Ernest Simon of Waterloo. Wedding plans are indefinite.

DISCUSSING THIS WEEK'S Christian Family Life Conference held here on the campus are Dr. Harold Haas and Dr. Evelyn Duval, two of the principle speakers.
